The Bandit

The Bandit is a submission-based, social justice-focused zine located in the mitten, Grand Rapids, MI. Founded in 2009 by two flaming radicals, the core group has grown to include a group of diverse and fabulous creatives and activists within their community. Although each member of the group comes from different backgrounds and identifies differently, they all share a passion to create and publish this (FREE) quarterly zine that covers a variety of social justice topics. The zine strives to be anti-oppressive and inclusive as possible. The Bandit is committed to fighting: sizeism, ableism, cissexism & transphobia, sexism, heteronormativity & homophobia/biphobia, classism, racism, and so forth.
